

*$7 Billion in New Revenue
Now What Do We Do?*

CTBA's 10th Annual Fiscal Symposium
Friday, March 25, 2011

The Center for Tax and Budget Accountability invites you to join us for a crucial symposium that will analyze what the state's newly enacted tax increases and spending caps mean for everything from Illinois' economy and business climate, to capacity to core programs like education and social services. Join our panelists for a lively discussion on the interplay between adequately funding basic services and economic development.

Keynote Address: Illinois Senate President John J. Cullerton, 6th District

Moderator: Eric Zorn, Chicago Tribune columnist

- Panelists:
- Illinois State Senator Kirk Dillard, 24th District-Hinsdale
 - Matt Gardner, Executive Director, Institute on Taxation and Economic Policy
 - Greg Hinz, Columnist, Crain's Chicago Business
 - Illinois State Senator Kimberly Lightford, 4th District-Maywood
 - Michelle Saddler, Secretary, Illinois Department of Human Services

Panel presentations will be followed by a question and answer session.

PLAN NOW TO ATTEND. Registration is required and limited to 300. Business Casual Attire Required

- DATE: Friday, March 25, 2011
TIME: 8:15 am – Registration, Networking & Continental Breakfast
9:00 am to 12:00 pm - Program
LOCATION: Union League Club of Chicago, Main Lounge, 65 W. Jackson, Chicago, Illinois
FEE: $50
$20 Student Rate, Student ID required

(Cash or Check only. Make checks payable to: Center for Tax and Budget Accountability)

Please complete and mail this form, along with your payment, to CTBA to reserve your place at the event.

Registration must be received no later than Wednesday, March 23, 2011.

PLEASE PRINT & RETURN TO: Mailing Address: CTBA, 70 East Lake Street, Ste. 1700, Chicago, IL 60601 (Attn: Tracy Schonberger) Fax Number: 312/578-9258 or email to tschonberger@ctbaonline.org

Name:
Title:
Organization:
Address:
City:	State:	Zip:
Phone:	Fax:
E-Mail:

We encourage you to pass this invitation along to others you believe would be interested in attending